BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told
Briefly for Busy Readers

Depot Master Kelly of Troy was a guest in town Saturday.

Two clever vaudeville acts and a five-part V. L. S. E. feature at the opera house today for 5 and 10c. Adv.

Wednesday is St. Michael's and All Angels' day. There will be celebration of the Holy Communion at St. Peter's church at 9 a. m. The altar guild will then make its corporate communion and after the service will have an important business meeting.

The usual mid-week services at Ben Vene library will be held on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Rev. Thornton F. Turner, rector of St. Peter's, will give one of his practical talks. As this is the last meeting of the year, it is hoped that there will be an unusually large attendance.

There will be mailed this week to every enrolled scholar of the Methodist, Baptist and Second Congregational Sunday schools an envelope containing link to be put in the chain next Sunday, rally day, and a small envelope for the offering. On the links is printed this pledge: "I promise during the coming year to be loyal to my Sunday school, and to Christ, my leader and King. I promise to study, pray, give and serve." Each scholar will place in the envelope the amount he thinks he ought to give to the Sunday school cause, and bring both envelope and link to Sunday school on rally day, next Sunday, 12 o'clock at noon.

A five-part V. L. S. E. feature at the opera house today and they lead them all. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Jennings of Old Bennington, have returned to New York.

The last time to see those clever animals—Lewis' dog and monkey circus—opera house today. Adv.

Miss Alice Griswold has gone to Goshen, N. Y., for a visit with her brother, Burt Griswold.

Miss Agnes Hurley has accepted a position as stenographer in the insurance office of W. H. Wills.

M. S. Stone of Montpelier, state commissioner of education, was in Bennington Sunday and Monday.

"Expotentismous"—do you know the meaning? If not, let Ralston and Nicholas explain it to you at the opera house today. Adv.

John Slavin, June Keith and Wm. Borress featured in a five-part V. L. S. E. comedy, "A Bunch of Keys" at the opera house today. Adv.

Mrs. S. W. Rankin of Amsterdam and Mrs. John Smyth of Troy who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maurer, have returned to their homes.

Miss Lillian Temple, who has been spending a several weeks vacation at her former home here, will return Wednesday to New York. She will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Temple, who will spend two weeks in that city.

The Spotless White Cupboards of the New Hoosier Beauty See Them

This is the "National Step Saver"—Finest and most complete kitchen cabinet ever built—Most popular cabinet in the world.

Now improved in a dozen ways with no increase in price.

The woman who gets a "Hoosier Beauty" this week has a labor-saving machine of which she will be as proud in twenty years as she is today.

Note the wide cupboards, uncluttered by cubby holes or partitions—the sanitary base that can't collect dust—the trays for cooking tools on the right door—at your fingers' ends. Think of having all your kitchen's tools within arm's reach, around a big table of pure aluminum. Think of the miles of steps you save.

This is "HOOSIER BEAUTY"
The National Step Saver

ALL FOR $1 CASH AND A FEW $1 WEEKLY DUES

This offer, under direct authority of the Hoosier Company, is too great to be missed. Come in sure and see the entire new line of Hoosiers tomorrow before they are all taken. This sale at these remarkably low prices is possible only because the enormous Hoosier output has made huge factory savings.

See Also The NEW HOOSIER WONDER

at $9 LESS than standard prices—with aluminum table—and white enamel cupboards.

See Also The NEW HOOSIER SPECIAL

midway between the Hoosier Wonder and Hoosier Beauty in convenience—equal to Hoosier Beauty in size.

See Also The NEW ROLL DOOR HOOSIER

—the only kitchen cabinet with roll doors that are removable and sanitary—no cubby holes or partitions catch dirt or dust.

See Also The NEW HOOSIER DE LUXE

—all white enamel inside and out—a kitchen cabinet of remarkable beauty.

—All at prices far under the standard for their class. You can pick your choice—the cabinet you want and need—if you come tomorrow—at the price you want to pay. No wonder Hoosier dominates the entire world. No woman who ever used one would do without it.

Sale Ends When This Small Lot Is Gone. Come Early.
